

Comfort Systems USA Acquires Mechanical Contractor

February 28, 2008

HOUSTON, Feb. 28, 2008--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Comfort Systems USA, Inc. (NYSE: FIX), a leading provider of commercial, industrial and institutional heating, ventilation and air conditioning ("HVAC") services, today announced that it has agreed to acquire Riddleberger Brothers, Inc. ("Riddleberger"), a full service commercial HVAC company based in Mt. Crawford, Virginia. Riddleberger had 2007 revenues of approximately $65 million, and if Riddleberger had been part of Comfort Systems in 2007 we believe it would have contributed earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization of at least $7 million.

Bill Murdy noted, "We are very pleased to bring Riddleberger into the Comfort Systems USA family of companies. Riddleberger has a long and storied history, and brings with it an outstanding reputation for construction and service excellence in the Shenandoah Valley area of Virginia. Given their top-notch workforce and their excellent team culture, we fully expect Riddleberger to continue its rich tradition of technical excellence and solid financial performance."
